Our guest speaker is Rahel Mwitula Williams.

Rahel Mwitula Williams is a nonprofit development executive who works with major donors within the United States and internationally. She has served the nonprofit sector for over 15 years and is an experienced fundraiser and social entrepreneur. Rahel's philosophy is that giving has no socioeconomic barriers and she works with individuals, teams, and organizations to develop a culture and lifestyle of philanthropy. Rahel is the founder of ILAVA, a socially responsible lifestyle brand that uses fashion to empower African women. In April 2018, she presented at Northwestern University as a TEDx Speaker on the topic of "Redefining Philanthropy: Faces of Change Makers".

She is fluent in written and oral fluency in English and Kiswahili.

If you are unable to attend, please consider a donation to Living Water International, Living Water International - Cultivating Sustainable Water, Upbring, Non-Profit Foster Care & Adoption in Texas | Upbring, or by sending a check to Linda Heyde, 9002 Ridge Point Dr., Waco, TX 76712.

So let us come boldly to the throne of our gracious God. There we will receive God's mercy, and we will find grace to help us when we need it.
